

Hereford Rowing Club Cookies Policy 19/12/2018

Herefordrc.co.uk like many other websites uses cookies, these are small files that are collected as you browse the site. This information can be used for several reasons, but here at Hereford Rowing Club Ltd we only use them to make it easier and quicker for you to log into the members only area and for use with Google Analytics, which allows us to track the performance of the website eg number of hits and pages viewed etc.

This gives us no link to your computer and no information about you except biscuit for the information you choose to share with us.

If you are not happy with the use of cookies most modern browsers have the option to turn them off, the option for this should be located in the SETTINGS section of your browser.
